Itinerary

Morning, pick up from your hotel and travel 2 hours along the ridges of the Crocker Range to Kinabalu Park. The home to numerous species of interesting flora & fauna. After lunch, visit to presentation at Park's Exhibition Hall. Visitors can learn about the flora endemic within the park. The biggest attraction in Kinabalu Park would be the Mount Kinabalu Botanical Garden and one of the world's most prominent mountains, Mount Kinabalu, which peaks at 12, 455 feet above sea level. Open daily from 7am to 5pm. Continue 40 km overland journey to Poring Hot Springs. Upon arrival at Poring, trek through the rainforest and witness life from the treetop as you walk along the 41m high and 157.8m long Poring Canopy Walkway. A visit to Kinabalu Park will never be perfect without swinging by Poring Hot Springs. Return to Kota Kinabalu and transfer back to your hotel.
